

Hi [REDACTED]

This week I wanted to share a little bit more about the land here in [REDACTED] and how it's supporting the baby soul readings that I've been doing. The land here is so powerful and so pure, and what I love is how life here in [REDACTED] is so connected to, and in tune with, nature 🌿

There are three pillars of the [REDACTED] which influence daily life here:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I now know that this is a big part of why I have been called to this country. This philosophy resonates with me so deeply: [REDACTED] What else could a girl ask for?! 🥰

I didn't realise until I got here though that this is what the [REDACTED] people value too. And this is no doubt one of the reasons why I was called to this beautiful land.

What I didn't expect though, is how this land would support the work that I've been doing with babies. Since I have been here, the information streaming through has been so much clearer and faster than it ever was in [REDACTED]. Perhaps it's because of the change, the break, the disruption to my usual routine and the newness of it all? Or maybe it's all of the above? But I know deep in my bones that a big part of it is the power and depth of this land's energy.

Last week, I was talking to a Canadian shaman who told me how pure the land's energy is here in [REDACTED] and how it resonates at one of the highest frequencies in the world. And that this is why so many "soul workers" are being called to its shores at this time. This is huge when doing "work" like this. This is what my own soul is asking of me. This is what the babies I work with are asking of me too, to change and to lift my own vibration so I can hear them more deeply and connect with them more clearly.

And I'm certainly feeling all of it—not only with the readings I've been doing, but personally as well. It's gently showing me another layer of exploration and healing around my own journey that is inviting me to dive even deeper into the sore and/or hidden spots of my own soul-human journey.

Do you want to hear more about this journey in and around [REDACTED] alongside baby soul communication? I somehow think the two are inseparable right now, but what do you want to hear more about?

In the meantime, I'll leave you with a picture of the land I'm living on that's supporting all of your baby soul readings this month 🌍

With you on the journey,

[REDACTED] 🧡

PS, want your baby's soul to come through this land too? I just have a handful of spots left this week. Book yours [REDACTED]

NEXT Group Baby Soul Reading

Join me on Wednesday, 18th September at 10:00 AM AEST for a focused small group baby soul reading online via Zoom.

The theme for this reading is conception, for those who are trying to conceive (including IVF).

[REDACTED] when you book online and I'll tune in and answer it live on the Zoom call. If there's time at the end, you're welcome to ask more questions to clarify your reading.

Here's some examples that women ask about their conception journey:

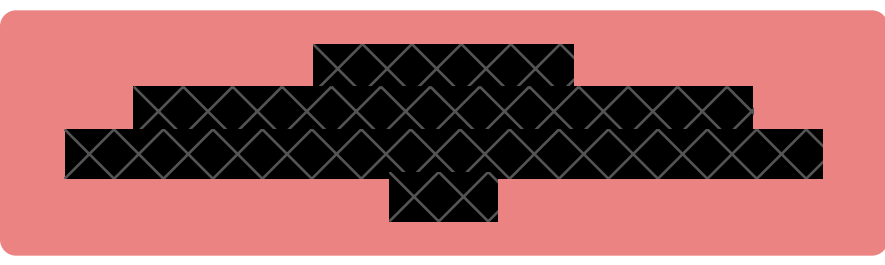

- When is my baby coming?
- Why aren't they here yet?
- What can I do to support my baby's conception?
- What are they waiting for?

Even if you can't make it to the call, or if something pops up last minute, I'll still answer your question live. Everyone who books will also receive a recording of the session for personal use.

Just [REDACTED] per person.

Upcoming Podcast Episodes

This week I'm back on [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]. We've recorded several episodes together now and we always dive deep into the world of baby souls. In this episode we dive even deeper into miscarriages, baby loss, IVF and how you can connect with your own Spirit Baby and why they might be taking their time coming earthside.
